A Yellow Game, in Which the Victors Tried to Get Pat Out.

PATERSON, N. J., Sept. 15.—Special.—Paterson batted Ames over the lot to-day, twenty-five hits with a total of forty five bases being the result of their stick work. Two base hits, three-baggers and home runs came with such frequency that the game became monotonous and the locals walked from base to base in order to get put out.

Oshorne relieved Ames in the seventh, and did a little better. The score:

READING, PA., Sept. 15,-After an absence of twenty-four days during which they pretty well covered the Atlantic League circuit, the Reading Club to-day League erreut, the Roaming can be returned home and opened a three-day's engagement with the Brooms of Norfolk. The home club signalized its return by badly defeating the vicitors the score behadly defrating the visitors the back ing is to 8.

McMackin and McFarland were the opposing pitchers and both were hit frequetly, the home club, however, having the best of it by far. Errors were numerous on the part of the visitors and this in a measure augmented the run-getting for the home club.

The features of the game were the heavy hitting of Stratton, McIntyre and Carey. The game was devoid of brilliant field plays. Following is the score:

ALEXANDRIA, VA., Sept. 15.—Special. The remains of the late Dr. Bedford Brown were conveyed to Rock Creek cemplety over beyond Georgetown and laid away in the family plat in the most beautiful perilon of it this afternoon. The funeral services were held at Christ church at neon. They were conducted by the young rector, Rev. Betryman Green in the presence of a large number of citizens of all classes and conditions and many from elsewhere.

Lee Camp. In uniform acted as escort from the house to the grave.

The services were simple, those of the Protestant Episcopal ritual. The choir chantel two beautiful selections on the incoming and outgoing of the cortege and led the congregation in singing two heautiful old hymns. "Just as I Am." and "Abide With Me."

The casket was horne by Drs. Klipsten, McGuire, Ashiy, Puryis, Snowden, Miller and Mr. Georse Uhler. On it lay the silk cross-bar flag of Lee Camp and several of the numerous floral offerings. The henorary pali-hearers were Dr. William Gibson, Mr. John W. Burke, Colonel Wm. A. Smoot, Mr. L. M. Blackford, Commander George Wm, Ramsay, Dr. Edward S. Leadbetter and Mr. Laurence Washington.

Only a few members of the late Doctor's immediate family were at the funeral and with them was the Doctor's faithful colored coachman.

The bright side of the situation is that the disease is of a very mild type.

All the fears of the citizens of Jackson in regard to the sickness prevalent at Edwards have been realized. Dr. Guiteras, the Government expert, has confirmed seven cases of yellow fever, and says there are many suspects.

First the cases were reported as malarial fever, then after a time they became Dengue fever. Another wait and they were pronounced suspicious, and inally declared to be the genuine yellow fever. During all this time the disease had been spreading at the rate of five or

It is stated that an expert has been requested to proceed to Nittayuma, Miss., to investigate the case of Malcolm Cameron, who came from Edwards, and to combletely isolate the case.

Yazoo City, Miss., has issued orders for a shot gun quarantine to be enforced. No trains are allowed to stop except to exchange mails at the quarantine stations. No passengers are allowed to leave the train and all mail and expressmust be fumigated. Guards armed to the teeth are placed along the county boundaries, but in spite of this rigid rule, several people have managed to got by some even coming from intected districts. Two drammers who came Monday were yesterday placed in quarantine.

A telegram was received at the Governor's office this morning asking that 250 tents be sent to Vicksburg to be used by quarantine officials. It was stated that there was one new case of yellow fever reported from Edwards. The telegram was from Drs. Hunter and Kriger.
